10. Inventory of Unavoidable Adverse Impacts

California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Guidelines §15126(b) requires that an Environmental Impact Report describe any significant adverse impacts which cannot be avoided or totally eliminated if the project is implemented.

For all significant adverse project impacts to the physical environment, measures have been incorporated into this EIR to mitigate the proposals' effects to insignificant levels.